Long known as a symbol of love, elk ivory is considered to be a precious and beautiful stone; however, the North American Elk's unique pair of canines called buglers, whistlers or tusks can be shaped and polished to form a rare and beautiful piece of jewelry. This handsomely sculpted sterling silver antler gracefully holds this unique ivory to form a distinctive pendant that is held by an 18-inch sterling silver rope chain.

Donation Value: $300.00
