Our friends, Lauri and John Abraham and Vlam Myburg of Madubula Safaris, have again generously donated to our Chapter a premium quality, fully guided, eight (8) day [day of arrival and day of departure are not counted as hunting days] plains game hunt for two (2) hunters at Cecil John Rhodes’s private game-rich hunting preserve. Accommodations take you back to the days of Frederick Courtney Selous and Teddy Roosevelt, but in a “luxury” tented (with electricity and ensuite bathrooms) camp setting. The pickup/departure point is the Kimberly Airport, which is a short flight south of Johannesburg, South Africa.

This plains game hunting safari is good for the 2017 year only but can be upgraded at Madubula's published rates (see www.madubula.com) to include observers and/or extra hunters and/or extra days and/or dangerous game. Method of hunt may be rifle, archery, handgun, or muzzleloader. Game available includes gemsbok, blesbok, baboon, kudu, eland, blue wildebeest, black wildebeest, zebra, impala, warthog, springbok, giraffe, steenbok, and duiker. Trophy fees are as shown on Madubula's website.

All expenses from the point of pickup to the point of departure are included except for trophy fees, Government Value Added Tax on daily rates (for additional hunters/observers only) and on animals not exported (including darted or wounded animals), firearm import permits fees, Kimberly Airport clearance fee, alcohol, gratuities for staff and PH. Expenses before arrival at and after departure from the Kimberly Airport are the hunters' responsibility.

As stated, this hunt is all inclusive from the point of pick up to the point of return to include field preparation of trophies and delivery of those trophies to a South African taxidermist for export preparation; fully approved camps; superb meals and accommodations; daily laundry service; a fully licensed professional hunter (PH); camp staff and field staff; a fully equipped, four-wheel drive hunting vehicle; coordination of safari travel plans.

Old friends of Madubula are invited to bid and visit us again.
